

WATER MEASUREMENT

1. (a) The Sites Authority is responsible for the measurement and recording of all Sites Water delivered pursuant to this Agreement up to and including at the point(s) of delivery Delivery Point shown on Exhibit B-D, and any additional location(s) mutually agreed to in writing by the Sites Authority and or point(s) of diversion established pursuant to Exhibit D.

(b) Prior to Completion, the Sites Authority shall ensure that the water measuring devices are installed and operating properly. The Sites Authority will be responsible for installing, operating, maintaining, and repairing all such measurement devices. The equipment and methods used to make such measurement and recordings shall be in accordance with Good Industry Practices. Upon request of the Contracting Officer either party to this Agreement, the Sites Authority shall investigate, or cause to be investigated, the accuracy of such and shall take any necessary steps to adjust any errors appearing therein. For any period of time when accurate measurements have not been made, the Sites Authority shall consult with Reclamation prior to making a final determination of the quantity delivered for that period of time. measurements will be investigated by the Sites Authority and any errors appearing therein will be corrected.

(a) (c) After delivery, Reclamation shall ensure that all water delivered under this Agreement is measured and supports the Sites Authority's applicable reporting on Sites Water and Sites Water Right. The water measuring devices or water measuring methods of comparable effectiveness must be acceptable to the Sites Authority. Reclamation shall be responsible for installing, operating, maintaining, and repairing all such measuring devices and implementing all such water measuring methods at no cost to the Sites Authority. On or before the 20th calendar day of each month, Reclamation shall provide the Sites Authority with the written quantity of water taken during the preceding month under this Agreement.